December 2012 Volume 9

From the Exalted Ruler

Well 2012 is soon coming to an end and so will your Exalted Ruler in April. If you are interested in becoming an officer of your lodge submit your name in February 2013, so you can be voted on in March.

November was a busy month; we had our Bay Pines visit with your veterans. We delivered 22 lap robes and undergarments to them, and fed over 170 veterans. December is also going to be busy, PER's Christmas Party on the 8th, children's party the 15th and our blast of an End of Year Gala. We are going to try this year to have our party on the 29th instead of December 31st. Hopefully this idea works. So support your lodge function and bring in 2013 with your members and guests.

I went to Fort Myers for our Mid Year Convention, of course they always talk about membership and how we need to continue keeping in touch with the members we signed up and keep them involved. Also, we talked about volunteers, not only in your lodge but to reach out into the community, talking to your civic groups on just what the Elks do. We need to continue helping our charities, without us our programs would not exist.

Really sorry to say, if the membership does not come out and support the lodge in its functions and continue your membership we are not going to be able to continue to help our charities and our veterans, God knows what else. This is why we are cutting back on some of our functions, due to no support.

December 2nd at 1:00pm we will be having our annual memorial service for our Elk members that died over the past year. All are invited to attend.

The veterans at Bay Pines are in great need of undergarments and socks, male and female. So if you like to help your veterans, drop off what you can. January 19th Stacy and Tex Rau will be hosting a fund raiser for our veterans, Army of Hope, to raise money in support of the families that have husbands and wives overseas. So look for that fund raiser and support the cause.

Again please support your lodge and pay your membership and come to the functions. I hope everyone had a nice Thanksgiving. There is a old saying, "GOSSIP" IS LIKE MUD YOU THROW IT AGAINST THE WALL IT SLIDES OFF BUT THE MARK STAYS"

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Fraternally, J.D. Exalted Ruler

Stop by the lodge and meet your new bartenders
Michele and Jamie!

From the desk of the Secretary

Listed below are the increases and decreases for the year as of 11/01/2012. We still have 54 delinquents. This number is way too large. We need to contact these members and encourage them to return.

The Increases are: Initiated 24 Affiliated 6 Reinstated 1 TOTAL 31

The Decreases:
Dropped	21
Transferred out	5
Absolute Demit	11
Death	5
TOTAL	42

As you can see we have a lot of work ahead of us to have a plus in membership. The loss of this many members means also a loss of revenue that the lodge can use to help others. If you know of someone who has not paid their dues reach out and ask them to reconsider. We are all part of a team. We are a team that is here to help others. We help our children with a variety of different programs. We help at Thanksgiving by giving baskets to needy families. At Christmas we turn our attention to the children for their party and every year the list gets longer and longer. Again we give baskets to needy families. We help Veterans by sending toiletries, books, clothes and money for what they need. We can only do this as a team and with everyone's help. It is your dues that let us give to others. We need you to be a part of the team.

If you know of someone who would care to join bring them in so they can meet our team. Ask them to join. The biggest comment that people have is nobody asked me. Let's start spreading the news about the Elks.

I pray you and yours will have a healthy and Blessed Christmas and New Year.

Judy Vergason Lodge Secretary

AMERICANISM and why it matters...

It may surprise contemporary readers to learn that Coolidge upheld the principle of equality as the most important in the Declaration. It sprang, he argued, from the religious sensibilities of the American people. "They preached equality," he said, "because they believed in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man." In words that could easily have been penned in our own generation, Coolidge defended the eternal validity of the founding documents: About the Declaration there is a finality that is exceedingly restful. It is often asserted that the world has made a great deal of progress since 1776, that we have had new thoughts and new experiences which have given us a great advance over the people of that day, and that we may therefore very well discard their conclusions for something more modern. But that reasoning cannot be applied to this great chapter. If all men are created equal, that is final. If governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, that is final. No advance, no progress can be made beyond these propositions. If anyone wishes to deny their truth or their soundness, the only direction in which he can proceed historically is not forward, but backward toward the time when there was no equality, no rights of the individual, no rule of the people. Those who wish to proceed in that direction can not lay claim to progress. They are reactionary. Their ideas are not more modern, but more ancient, than those of the Revolutionary fathers. And finally, this, from the man who held the presidency during the Roaring Twenties: "If we are to maintain the great heritage which has been bequeathed to us, we must be like-minded as the fathers who created it. We must not sink into a pagan materialism. We must cultivate the reverence which they had for the things that are holy." Americanism matters.
